

Greetings...

...1. Beginner Level Conversation: A First Meeting at a Café

Jan: Good morning!

Anna: Good morning.

Jan: Hello, my name is Jan. What is your name?

Anna: My name is Anna. It's nice to meet you.

Jan: How are you?

Anna: Very well, thank you. And you?

Jan: Not so bad, thank you.

Anna: Do you live here?

Jan: Yes, I live here. Do you?

Anna: No, I am here on vacation.

Jan: Are you here alone?

Anna: No, this is my husband.

Jan: Hello! Glad to see you.

Husband: Hello, Jan. Nice to meet you too.

Jan: Welcome!

Anna: Excuse me, what time is it?

Jan: It's 10 o'clock. Do you have any plans for tomorrow?

Anna: Yes, we will visit the museum.

Jan: What time shall we meet?

Anna: How about 2 o'clock?

Jan: Yes, that's fine, goodbye!

Anna: All the best!

Husband: See you soon!

Level 2

...2. Elementary Level Conversation:
A Friendly Catch-up

John: Hello, Sarah! How nice to see you.

Sarah: Do you know me?

John: Of course! I thought of you just yesterday.

Sarah: Really?

John: Yes. How are you?

Sarah: I'm very well, thank you. How's the family?

John: She is well—my wife and my daughter are both good.

Sarah: That's great. Please, sit down with me for a moment.

John: Thank you.

Sarah: Have you been here long?

John: Only a few weeks. Are you here long?

Sarah: No, just until Sunday.

John: Got some time tomorrow?

Sarah: Yes! Do you have any plans for tomorrow?

John: Not really. When shall we meet?

Sarah: Maybe after lunch. What time shall we meet?

John: Two o'clock?

Sarah: Perfect!

John: Please speak louder. It's noisy here.

Sarah: Sorry!

John: Am I bothering you?

Sarah: Not at all. It's nice to talk.

John: What may I offer you? Tea?

Sarah: That's kind, but I must go. I'm afraid I've got to go now.

John: Don't forget—2 o'clock tomorrow.

Sarah: I won't. Thank you, John.

John: You too—have a good trip if I don't see you again.

Sarah: Be careful.

John: All the best.

Sarah: Good night!

John: Goodbye!

Level 3

... 3. Intermediate Level Conversation:

At a Hotel Lounge

Emma: Good afternoon. Excuse me, is this seat free?

Tom: Yes, of course. Please, sit down.

Emma: Thank you. It's very good of you.

Tom: What is your name?

Emma: My name is Emma. What is your friend's name?

Tom: This is Alex—my son.

Emma: Glad to see you. I'm here for a few days. Do you live here?

Tom: No, I'm just visiting. Are you here alone?

Emma: Yes. I travel alone often.

Tom: Have you been here long?

Emma: Just arrived this morning. Are you here long?

Tom: For another three days.

Emma: Got some time tomorrow?

Tom: I do. Do you have any plans for tomorrow?

Emma: Nothing fixed. When shall we meet?

Tom: Maybe around 11?

Emma: That works. What time shall we meet at the lobby?

Tom: Let's say 10:45 to be safe. Hustle a minute, please—someone's calling me.

Emma: No problem.

Tom (returns): Sorry about that.

Emma: What happened?

Tom: Nothing serious—just my daughter asking about dinner.

Emma: This is your daughter?

Tom: Yes. She's 15.

Emma: It's nice to meet people while traveling.

Tom: Absolutely. Do you know me from somewhere, by the way?

Emma: I don't think so—but you remind me of someone.

Tom: We thought of you, Alex said. He remembers you from the airport.

Emma: Really? Small world.

Tom: Remember me to your father, if you speak to him.

Emma: Will do.

Tom: I'm afraid I've got to go now.

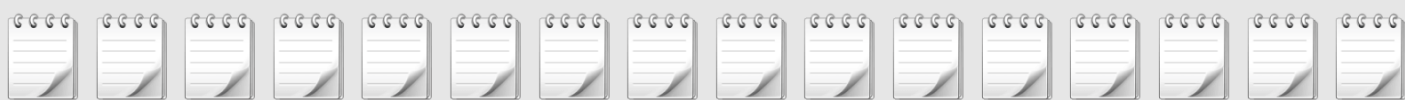

Emma: Sure. Who's there at the door?

Tom: Just Alex again.

Emma: Okay. See you soon.

Tom: All the best!

Emma: Goodbye!

Here's a glossary-style list of definitions or synonyms for the key phrases and harder words you provided.

Greetings & Farewells

Phrase Definition / Synonym

Good morning: A greeting used before noon.

Good afternoon: A greeting used after noon.

Good evening: A greeting used after 6 PM.

Good night: Said when going to bed or leaving at night.

Goodbye: A way to say you're leaving.

Synonym: Bye.

Hello: A friendly way to greet someone.

Synonym: Hi.

See you soon: A way to say you'll meet again soon.

All the best: A friendly goodbye, wishing good luck.

Politeness & Social Etiquette

Phrase Definition / Synonym

Please: A polite word when asking for something.

Thank you: Said when someone helps or gives something.

Excuse me: Used to get attention, or say sorry politely.

I'm sorry: Said when you made a mistake or feel bad.

It's very good of you: A polite way to thank someone for their kindness.

Be careful: A warning to take care or avoid danger.

It's nice to meet you: A polite phrase when meeting someone for the first time.

Welcome: A greeting when someone arrives.

Introductions & People

Phrase Definition / Synonym

What is your name? Asking someone for their name.

My name is Jan: Telling your name.

What is your friend's name? Asking someone for their friend's name.

This is my wife / husband / son / daughter
Introducing your family.

Do you know me? Asking if someone remembers who you are.

Glad to see you: Happy to meet or see someone.

Remember me to your father: A polite way to send greetings to someone's family.

We thought of you We remembered or talked about you.

Location & Duration

Phrase Definition / Synonym

Do you live here? Asking if someone stays in this place.

Have you been here long? Asking if someone has been in a place for a long time.

Are you here long? Asking how long someone plans to stay.

Are you here alone? Asking if the person is by themselves.

Plans & Time

Phrase Definition / Synonym

Do you have any plans for tomorrow? Asking about future activities.

When shall we meet? Asking to set a meeting time.

What time shall we meet? Asking to agree on an exact time.

Got some time? Casual way of asking if someone is free.

Don't forget: A reminder to remember something.

I'm afraid I've got to go now: A polite way to say you need to leave.

Speaking & Communication

Phrase Definition / Synonym

Please speak louder: A request to speak with more volume.

Am I bothering you? Asking if you are disturbing someone.

What may I offer you? A polite way to ask if someone wants something.

Surprise, Reactions & Requests

Phrase Definition / Synonym

Who's there? Asking who is at the door or nearby.

What happened? Asking about an event or problem.

What is the matter? Asking what's wrong or the problem.

It is nothing; Saying there's no problem.

Hustle a minute, please: Informal way to ask someone to hurry for a moment. Synonym: Quickly, please.

Please leave me alone: Asking someone to stop talking to you or go away.

Inlschool.ir

